

Privacy Policy (Reg. EU/679/2016 and of Decree Law 196/03): your data here freely collected are subject to confidentiality and will be treated by us in respect of the rights of the person. According to and for the effects of Reg. EU/679/2016 and of Decree Law 196/03 your personal data will be processed only for the purposes related to the activities of our Organization and always respecting confidentiality and privacy. In the performance of the services, your data may be transmitted to third parties by us always and only for the purposes described above or for the fulfillment of legal obligations. This registration also automatically entails the subscription to the newsletter from which you can still cancel through the appropriate field in the newsletter sent. The Data Controller is our Organization in the person of its Legal Representative with whom to assert one's own rights among which updating, integration or cancellation of personal data also by sending an email.